

The Form 401 is for use by Slate Mailer Organizations to disclose payments made and received in connection with producing slate mailers.

A “slate mailer” is a mass mailing which supports or opposes a total of four or more candidates or ballot measures.

A “Slate Mailer Organization” is any individual or entity which, directly or indirectly, does both of the following:

- (1) Is involved in the production of one or more slate mailers and exercises control over the selection of the candidates and measures to be supported or opposed in the slate mailers.
- (2) Receives or is promised payments totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more in a calendar year for the production of one or more slate mailers.

“Slate Mailer Organization” does not include:

- A candidate or officeholder or a candidate’s or officeholder’s controlled committee.
- An official committee of any political party.
- A legislative caucus committee.
- A committee primarily formed to support or oppose a candidate, officeholder or ballot measure.

The Form 401 maybe filed:

- As a semi-annual statement
- As a pre-election statement

Refer to the Information Manual On Campaign Disclosure Provisions of The Political Reform Act For Slate Mailer Organizations for information about when and where to file the Form 401.

Instructions for Completing Schedule A Payments Received

Schedule A is used to report all payments received in connection with producing slate mailers. If payments received from a single source during the period covered by the statement equal $100 or more, the following information must be reported:

- The date received (Column 1).
- If payments of $100 or more were received during the period from candidates and committees, Column (2) must include:
 - The name and street address of the candidate or committee.
 - The committee's identification number if the payment was received from a committee.
 - The jurisdiction and office sought or held by a candidate or officeholder making a payment, or
 - The jurisdiction and ballot letter or number if paid by a committee formed to support or oppose a ballot measure.
- If payments of $100 or more are received during the period from persons other than a candidate or committee, Column (2) must include:
 - The full name and street address of the payor.
 - If the payor is an individual, the name of the individual's employer or, if self-employed, the name of the business.
- If payments of $100 or more were received during the period from persons other than the candidate supported or opposed in a slate mailer, or other than the committee primarily formed to support or oppose a ballot measure, Column (3) must include:
 - The name, office sought, and jurisdiction of the candidate supported or opposed, or the name, jurisdiction, and number or letter of the ballot measure supported or opposed (Column (a)); and
 - An indication whether the payment received was in support of or opposition to the candidate or measure (Column (b)).
- The amount received during the period covered by the report from each payor (Column 4).
- The cumulative amount of payments received from each payor on behalf of or in opposition to each candidate or measure included in a slate mailer since January 1 of the calendar year covered by the statement (Column 5).

Summarize at the bottom of Schedule A all payments received during the period for the purpose of producing slate mailers. Payments of less than $100 need only be reported as a lump sum amount.

Instructions for Completing Schedule B Payments Made

CALIFORNIA
1992 FORM 401

Schedule B is used to report all payments made by the organization in connection with producing slate mailers. For each person to whom a payment of $100 or more has been made during the period covered by the campaign statement, the following information must be provided:

- The full name and street address of the payee.
- A brief description of the product(s) or service(s) received.
- The amount paid during the period.

If the organization makes payments to an agent or independent contractor who makes payments on behalf of the organization, the following information must be provided on the organization's campaign statement:

- The name, address, description of payment, and amount paid during the period to the agent or independent contractor; and
- The name, address, description of payment, and amount paid during the period to persons who received $100 or more from the agent or independent contractor.

Schedule B-1 may be used to report payments made by an agent or independent contractor.

Summarize at the bottom of Schedule B all payments made in connection with producing slate mailers. Report in a lump sum all payments made to persons who received less than $100 during the period.

Instructions for Completing Schedule C Persons Receiving $1,000 or More

CALIFORNIA
1992 FORM 401

You must list on Schedule C each individual who is listed on the organization's Statement of Organization (Form 400) (the treasurer and other principal officers, and individuals who have final decision making authority as to which candidates or measures will be supported or opposed in the organization's slate mailers) who received, directly or indirectly, $1,000 or more from the organization during the period. (NOTE: Only individuals who are listed on the Statement of Organization are reported on Schedule C.)

A payment is made "indirectly" to an individual if it is intended for the benefit of or use by that individual or a member of his or her immediate family. A payment also is made "indirectly" to an individual if it is made to a business entity in which the individual or a member of his or her immediate family is a partner, shareholder, owner, director, trustee, or in which the individual or member of his or her immediate family has an investment of $1,000 or more. (Note: This does not apply to payments made to a business entity whose securities are publicly traded.)

"Indirect" payments also include rebates or refunds paid to an individual listed on the Statement of Organization from vendors or other subcontractors who received payments from the organization.

For each individual who must be listed on Schedule C, provide the following information:

- His or her full name.
- The amount of direct and indirect payments made to the individual during the period.
- The cumulative amount of direct and indirect payments made to the individual since January 1 of the calendar year covered by the statement.
